In support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully represent as follows:

Jurisdiction and Venue

1. The United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “Court”) has subject matter jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a).
2. Venue is proper pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a).
3. The statutory predicate for the relief sought herein is Bankruptcy Code sections 362(d)(1) and 105(a), made applicable to these Title III cases by PROMESA section 301(a).

Background

4. On June 2, 2017, the Court entered an order approving certain notice, case management, and administrative procedures for the Title III cases [ECF No. 249] (as amended, the “Case Management Procedures”), which was subsequently amended on June 6, 2017 to make certain non-substantive clarifications and amendments [ECF No. 262].

5. On August 17, 2017, the Court entered an order further amending the Case Management Procedures to, among other things, implement a protocol (the “Lift Stay Protocol”) for filing motions for relief from Title III Stay [ECF No. 1065]. Under the Lift Stay Protocol, a movant is required to (a) send notice (a “Lift Stay Notice”) to counsel to the Oversight Board and AAFAF to advise them of the movant’s intent to seek relief from the Title III Stay at least fifteen (15) business days prior to filing a motion seeking such relief (the “Lift Stay Notice Period”) and (b) meet and confer with the Debtors during the Lift Stay Notice Period.

6. On September 13, 2017, the Debtors filed a motion to amend the Case Management Procedures [ECF No. 1299] to allow the Debtors (a) to enter into stipulations modifying or lifting the Title III Stay under Paragraph III.Q of the Case Management Procedures without further order of the Court and (b) in their discretion, to modify or lift the Title III Stay with respect to any prepetition ordinary course civil action against a Debtor without the filing of a Lift Stay Notice and further order of the Court.

7. On October 24, 2017, the Court approved the Third Amended Notice, Case Management and Administrative Procedures [ECF No. 1512-1], which implemented the Debtors’ requested changes to the Lift Stay Protocol and requires the Debtors to file an omnibus lift stay motion every 60 days, identifying each modification to the Title III Stay agreed to by the Debtors during the relevant period and seeking retroactive Court approval of such modifications nunc pro tunc to the relevant modification date.

8. The Court entered the following orders approving stipulations modifying the Title III Stay nunc pro tunc to the dates specified therein:

- First Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 2191], dated December 28, 2017.

- Second Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 2565], dated February 21, 2018.

- Third Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 2945], dated April 23, 2018.

- Order Supplementing Third Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 2988], dated May 1, 2018.

- Fourth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 3326], dated June 20, 2018.

- Fifth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 3925], dated August 21, 2018.

- Order Supplementing Fifth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 3940], dated September 17, 2018.

- Sixth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 4201], dated November 9, 2018.

- Seventh Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 4550], dated December 21, 2018.

- Eighth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 5146], dated February 15, 2019.

- Ninth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 6448], dated April 22, 2019.

- Tenth Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 7502], dated June 18, 2019.

- Eleventh Omnibus Order Granting Relief From the Automatic Stay [ECF No. 8499], dated August 19, 2019.

Relief Requested

9. By this Motion, the Debtors seek entry of an order, substantially in the form of the Proposed Order, (i) retroactively approving the modifications to the Title III Stay for the parties and actions set forth in Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order, nunc pro tunc to the dates specified therein and (ii) to the extent necessary, approving modifications to the Title III Stay for the parties and actions as set forth in Exhibit 2, retroactive to the date of this Motion. As required by Paragraph III.Q of the Case Management Procedures, Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order include a brief description of the modification of the Title III Stay and case information (including case number and court), as applicable, for each party.

10. This Motion seeks to approve modifications to the Title III Stay listed in Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order agreed to by the Debtors for the period from August 10, 2019 through October 8, 2019 (the date of this Motion). Further, the Motion seeks to approve modifications to the Title III Stay agreed to by the Debtors, through this Motion and without need for a stipulation in accordance with Paragraph III.Q of the Case Management Procedures as detailed in Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order.

Basis for Relief

11. Bankruptcy Code section 362(a), made applicable to Title III cases pursuant to PROMESA section 301(a), provides, in relevant part, that the commencement of a Title III case operates as a stay enjoining all persons and entities from, among other things: (i) commencing or continuing any action or proceeding against a debtor that was or could have been brought against the debtor before the commencement of the debtor's Title III case, (ii) taking any action to obtain possession or control over property of the debtor, and (iii) attempting to collect, assess, or recover on a prepetition claim. See 11 U.S.C. § 362(a). In Title III cases, in addition to the automatic stay under section 362(a), Bankruptcy Code section 922(a) provides an additional stay of "any judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against an officer or inhabitant of the municipality that seeks to enforce a claim against the municipal debtor." 11 U.S.C. § 922(a).

12. Bankruptcy Code section 362(d)(1) provides that a court may grant relief from the automatic stay "for cause." See 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1). To determine whether "cause" exists to grant relief from the automatic stay, courts generally examine numerous different factors, including those set forth in Sonnax Indus., Inc. v. TriComponent Prods. Corp. (In re Sonnax Indus., Inc.), 907 F.2d 1280 (2d Cir. 1990). See Brigade Leveraged Capital Structures Fund Ltd. v. García-Padilla, 217 F. Supp. 3d 508, 518 (D.P.R. 2016) ("To help guide their analysis of whether to enforce or vacate the stay, some courts, including those in this district, have relied upon a laundry list of assorted factors." (citing Sonnax, 907 F.2d at 1286; C & A, S.E. v. P.R. Solid Waste Mgmt. Auth., 369 B.R. 87, 94–5 (D.P.R. 2007))).

13. Additionally, under Bankruptcy Code section 105(a), made applicable to the Title III cases by PROMESA section 301(a), the Court "may issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

14. Since implementing the Lift Stay Protocol on August 17, 2017, the Debtors have received over 275 Lift Stay Notices seeking relief from the Title III Stay to prosecute various prepetition actions. The Debtors and their advisors, in consultation with the Oversight Board, carefully reviewed and analyzed each of the Lift Stay Notices and determined that it was appropriate to modify the Title III Stay for the parties and actions listed in Exhibits 1 and 2 to the Proposed Order, nunc pro tunc to the dates specified therein.

15. The seven (7) actions listed in Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order involve (a) six condemnation proceedings commenced by HTA, and (b) one action commenced by an inmate against the Commonwealth for alleged violation of his constitutional rights. As explained more fully in Exhibit 2 of the Proposed Order, the proposed modification of the automatic stay for these actions would allow such actions to proceed to judgment, but any execution and enforcement of any judgment would remain stayed.

16. The Debtors believe that modifying the Title III Stay for these matters will alleviate the strain on the Title III cases and this Court, will further interests of judicial economy, and maximize the Debtors' resources for the benefit of all parties in interest by avoiding costly claim litigation in this Court on matters that are already well underway in other fora. Importantly, the proposed consensual stay modifications will only allow the subject case to proceed to liquidation of any claim amount and will not permit any enforcement or collection of any claim arising prior to the respective Debtors' petition dates. Also, the Debtors reserve all rights, defenses, and protections with respect to any matters pending or that may arise in the Title III Cases, including the treatment of any claim arising from the subject actions under a plan of adjustment or otherwise in the Title III Cases.

17. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order retroactively approving the modifications of the Title III Stay set forth on Exhibits 1 and 2 to the Proposed Order.

Notice

18. The Debtors have provided notice of this Motion in accordance with the Case Management Procedures to the following parties: (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Puerto Rico; (b) the indenture trustees and/or agents, as applicable, for the Debtors' bonds; (c) the entities on the list of creditors holding the 20 largest unsecured claims against COFINA; (d) counsel to the statutory committees appointed in these Title III cases; (e) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Puerto Rico; (f) counsel to the Oversight Board; (g) the Puerto Rico Department of Justice; (h) the Other Interested Parties;<sup>3</sup> (i) all parties filing a notice of appearance in these Title III cases; and (j) the parties set forth in Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order. A copy of the Motion is also available on the Debtors' case website at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/puertorico/>.

19. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Motion

20. The Debtors have not made any prior motion for the relief sought in this Motion to this or any other court.

<sup>3</sup> The "Other Interested Parties" include the following: (i) counsel to certain of the insurers and trustees of the bonds issued or guaranteed by the Debtors; and (ii) counsel to certain ad hoc groups of holders of bonds issued or guaranteed by the Debtors.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, retroactively approving the modifications of the Title III Stay set forth on Exhibits 1 and 2 to the Proposed Order, and granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.
